- Film Screening: Bax Laansk (45 min)

12 pm-1 pm, Buchanan B313

Chair and Director: Charles Menzies, University of British Columbia

Bax Laansk - pulling together, is a film about Gitxaaᑎ a Nation on BC's north coast. In this film the voices of community leaders speak about the importance of place, knowledge, and authority to being Gitxaaᑎ a. Delving into difficult, troubling histories of colonialism, the film takes the hopeful perspective that linking culture with youth our future will be assured. We are not leaving this place - it is Gitxaaᑎ a.

This film is part of the outcome of an ongoing collaborative research project directed by Gitxaaᑎ a in cooperation with The Ethnographic Film Unit @ UBC.

Friday, 2:00 – 3:45: Concurrent Sessions

- 78. Special NFB Film Screening: Angry Inuk (documentary 85 min)

Frederic Wood Theatre

Short Synopsis

Seal hunting, a critical part of Inuit life, has been controversial for a long time. Now, a new generation of Inuit, armed with social media and their own sense of humour and justice, are challenging the anti-sealing groups and bringing their own voices into the conversation. Director Alethea Arnaquq-Baril joins her fellow Inuit activists as they challenge outdated perceptions of Inuit and present themselves to the world as a modern people in dire need of a sustainable economy.
